VENABLE IS BOUND OVER FOR SELLING MALT MEAD

Recorder Broyles Decides to Let Case Go to State Courts for Test.

O. G. Venable, who conducts a drug store at the corner of Decatur and Collins street, was arraigned yesterday afternoon before Recorder Broyles on the charge of having violated the prohibition law by keeping and selling "Malt Mead," an alleged temperance drink. He was bound over to the state court under $100 bond. Recorder Broyles deciding that it was best that a test be made and that it be determined by a court of record whether or not the sale of such drinks is prohibited by the state law.

City Chemist Smith testified that the drink in question had been analyzed by him, and that it contained 1 per cent of alcohol. Mr. Venable stated that he had drunk thirteen bottles of the beverage and that it had produced no symptom of intoxication.

Candidates in Oglethorpe.

Lexington, Ga., February 21.—(Special.) Hon. C. A. Stevens, who announced for the state senate informally some time ago, will doubtless have a position. Much pressure is being brought to bear on Hon. N. D. Arnold, executive, to enter for the senate. Hon. Paul Brown, for the house, will likely announce for a return.

TRAIN VISITED BY 6,000 PEOPLE

Yesterday Was the Record Day of Educational Special.

SCHOOLS GIVEN A HOLIDAY

Dr. Soule Has Received 160 Letters Asking That Additional Stops Be Made, Which He Has Found Impossible to Comply With.

By SIDNEY ORMOND.

Abbeville, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—This has been the record day of the educational special, fully six thousand persons visiting the train. Five stops were made, at Claxton, Collins, Mount Vernon, Helena and Abbeville. At Lyons large crowds had congregated, expecting the train would stop. The schedule would not permit of any change, and many were sorely disappointed. Since the tour began, Dr. Soule has received 160 letters asking that additional stops be made. However, he has found it impossible to comply with the request.

The day has been an ideal one in every respect, and the crowds have been most enthusiastic. At the morning stops Claxton and Collins and Mount Vernon, the public schools were given a holiday. In regard to the rather capricious criticism of the train from Waycross, based on the allegation that south Georgia is not properly represented in the exhibits, it is only fair to say that this section is better represented than any in the state. There are on the train several articles which cannot be produced in any other section save south Georgia; the other products can be raised in any section.

The stops today will be at Rochelle, Cordele, Lumpkin, Richland and Cusseta. Tonight and Sunday will be spent in Columbus.

THREE DIE IN ONE FAMILY.

All the Deaths Occurred Inside of a Week.

Douglasville, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—One of the saddest deaths that has ever occurred in this county was that of Mrs. W. T. Holloway, which occurred at her home 2 miles east of here this morning, she being the third member of her immediate family to die within the past week and still another lies at the point of death.

On Friday of last week her son, Howard, aged 22, was buried after having been sick only about a week with measles. On Monday last a grandchild of Mrs. Holloway was buried, being a victim of the same malady. Mrs. Holloway's death this morning makes a third out of the same home and from the same cause within the week. A sister of the grandchild, who died Monday, is very low and doctors think she cannot possibly live.

EPIDEMIC OF GRIP

Natural Remedy for Common Effects of the Disease.

It is probably true that the presence of an unusual amount of germ-laden dust in the air has had much to do with the prevalence of grip this winter. It is not, however, so important to account for the epidemic as it is to point to the remedy for the common effects of the blood-poisoning, prostrating disease. This is naturally Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and revitalizes the blood, restores the appetite, aids the digestion and

Renews the Strength. It is the clearly indicated medicine, and thousands are taking it just at this time, and if you need a cathartic, get Hood's Pills also, the tonic cathartic, inasmuch as they do not weaken but strengthen the system as they do their work.

Restored Health.—My husband and I took Hood's Sarsaparilla after a severe attack of grip which had reduced us very low. It gave us appetite and strength and restored our health." Mrs. Tho. Gilpatrick, North Gray, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold everywhere. In the usual liquid, or in tablet form called Sarsaparils—One hundred doses one dollar.

FIVE SLIGHTLY INJURED IN WRECK ON COAST LINE

The Cars Were Literally Turned Over and Rolled Down an Embankment.

Thomasville, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—The Albany branch of the Atlantic Coast Line was the scene of a serious wreck this afternoon. The train, No. 72, from Albany, was running at a good speed when the baggage car left the track and was dragged over a hundred yards before the train could be stopped. The cars were all overturned and passengers injured severely. There were no fatalities, although several were severely injured.

Conductor Durant had his face broken and was severely bruised in the back. R. J. Rachael and J. H. Black of this place, were severely injured, being badly bruised and shaken. Traveling salesman from Albany, was out in the thigh, severing small arteries. Miss Annie Davidson, of Tallahassee, was also bruised on the head.

The escape of all was a mystery, as the cars literally turned over down an embankment, breaking glass, throwing seats around and scattering the passengers at a lively rate.

FIGHT TO COME OVER SCHEDULE

New Division Scheme Will Be Stoutly Opposed.

Little Rock, Ark., February 21.—Directors, managers, officials or representatives of all clubs in the Southern League are in this city in annual spring session, preparing a schedule for the coming season, and transacting other league business. About thirty representatives in all are here.

A fight is expected at tomorrow's meeting between clubs which propose a revision of Southern League divisions and those against the project. Mobile and New Orleans proposed to form northern and southern divisions instead of eastern and western divisions now in effect. The clubs in the proposed northern division object, however, on the ground that 1700 mileage with such a division would be much greater than that of clubs in the southern division. The matter will be definitely settled tomorrow, when a vote will be taken. The victors will be taken to Hot Springs to be entertained until after dinner. President of the league will entertain the visiting delegates at a banquet tomorrow night.

THEATERS

At the Grand.

Before framing up "Checkers" Henry M. Blossom must have taken the temperature of the masses and found out what they needed, for he filled the prescription. "Checkers" hasn't slumped in popularity. On about its third appearance at the Grand last night it drew a pit to dome packed house and one that was almost warm what it got, to judge from the hearty applause.

There's the same old Remorse romping in a winner, with the same capable Hans Roberts as Checkers pulling the pony to victory. Dave Abraham, Jr., as Push Miller, the tout, is again on hand, going into ecstasies because the dope went right. But the race track scene is no better taken care of than any of the others. This year season's cast serves the comedy in its entirety as well as that of last year's.

Others who handled their parts well were George E. Merritt as Uncle Jerry, Joseph Wilkes as Adoniram Barlow, Jess Dickson as Cynthia, Miss Longfellow as Pert Barlow, and George Seybold as Arthur Kendall. All the "whittling" scene. Matinee and night performances will be given today.

ALEX. LYNN.

McIntyre and Heath.

At the conclusion of the present American tour of "The Ham Tru" in which McIntyre and Heath are the stars, it is most certain that the entire outfit, with company, chorus, scenery and working staff will play a London engagement.

McIntyre and Heath will be seen in "The Ham Tru" at the Grand Monday and Tuesday nights, with matinee Tuesday afternoon.

At the Bijou.

Virtue triumphant and vice defeated are the predominating features of Charles E. Blaney's latest melodrama, "While Live, the Boy Detective," which will appear for a week at the Bijou, beginning next Monday night. In it will introduce Harry Clay Blaney, assisted by Kitty Wolf.

At the Orpheum.

This afternoon and tonight close the bill at the Orpheum and with it the engagement of the Duffin-Roddy troupe of acrobats, the best "casting act" ever brought to Atlanta.

For next week the headline feature will be Panny Rice and her dancing dog, on a most unique in vaudeville and one of the most successful of the season.

TWO COAL COMPANIES SELL TO NEW COMPANY

Atlanta Gas, Coke, Coal and Mining Company Is Formed—May Build Giant Coal Shed.

The Atlanta Gas, Coke, Coal and Mining Company is the name of the corporation which has been formed and brought out the Shull-Moran Coal Company, the Francis-Kelly Coal Company and the coke output of the Atlanta Gas Light Company.

William C. Moore, of Cincinnati, a wealthy coal operator of Cincinnati, is the president of the new corporation, and M. D. Francis will be the local manager, with offices in the Prudential building, opening for business on Monday morning.

In buying out the coke output of the Atlanta Gas Light Company, the new corporation takes over all of the delivery teams of the former company, and all the contracts for the delivery of coke, etc.

It is understood that negotiations have been entered into with the Louisville and Nashville road with a view to building a giant coal shed in Atlanta to handle the purchases of this company.

Body of Negro Boy Found.

Washington, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—The body of a young Negro boy, a Negro boy about sixteen years old, was found Thursday by his uncle, who was found by a search party.

The boy's body was partially eaten by the buzzards.

He disappeared from home several days ago under the influence of liquor, and it is supposed that he froze to death, as there was nothing to indicate foul play.

Four Deaths in Gwinnett.

Lawrenceville, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—Thomas A. Russell, 84 years of age, died Wednesday and was buried at Hog Mountain. He had never been sick up to two weeks ago, when he contracted la grippe.

Donald S. Williams died Sunday morning and was buried at Fairview. He was 43 years of age, and leaves a wife and several children.

David M. Funderburg, aged 85 years, died February 14. He had been afflicted for 51 years with white swelling.

Mrs. Richard Cowley, of Gloster, was found dead in bed Thursday morning. She was alive and well when her husband left the house only a few minutes before.

Politics in Butts County.

Jackson, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—Judge Frank Z. Curry, of Jackson, and Colonel M. Duke, of Plavilla, have announced as candidates for the state senate to represent the twenty-sixth district. It is said that Colonel L. H. Ray, of Jackson, and Hon. S. H. May, the present representative from Butts, will also enter the race for the senate.

Hon. J. Matt McMichael, of Jackson, has announced as a candidate for the legislature in the next legislature. It is said that Hon. T. P. Bell will also be a candidate.

Why Suffer?

If you suffer pain from any cause, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will relieve it—and leave no bad after-effects. That's the important thing. Neither do they create a habit. More often the attacks become less frequent, or disappear altogether. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have no other effect except to relieve pain and quiet nervous irritation.

"We have never without Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. My husband and son, aged 16, were always subject to severe neuralgia until we began using these Pills, and they have broken them up entirely. Don't think they have had to use them for six months. I recommend them to every one. A few weeks ago I heard an old lady friend was sick. I went to see her. She was down with La Grippe, and nearly crazy with awful backache. I gave her one of the Anti-Pain Pills and left another for her to take in a short time. They helped her right away, and she says she will never be without them again. Last winter my husband was taken with neuralgia on both sides, and I know he would have died if it hadn't been for the Pills. He was then in bed for a week, he was sweating, and went to bed and slept."

DISSENSION IN RANKS OF REPUBLICAN LEAGUE

And now there is dissension in the ranks of the Georgia Republican State League.

"Colonel" J. E. Sistrunk, the president of the league, which is antagonistic to the present organization to which a majority of the federal officers belong, and Tom Blodgett, the only white man at the meeting of the local league held in Atlanta last night, differ as to the resolutions presented to the meeting.

"Colonel" Sistrunk, in an appeal issued to "The Republicans of the State of Georgia, Greeting," calls for county and district republican conventions, with a state convention to be held in Atlanta on March 3, probably at Turner's Tabernacle, where a full state ticket of republican candidates is to be nominated.

After the meeting, Mr. Blodgett called on the local committee of the league and advised the office to pay no attention to "Colonel" Sistrunk's resolutions, as they were voted down.

"Colonel" Sistrunk brought the original copy of the resolutions into the office to prove that they were adopted. So, there you are.

There is a split in the republican party in Georgia; now comes a split in the split, and soon there will be enough factions to fill each of the republican candidates for president.

Another meeting will be held soon.

GRAND AMATEUR NIGHT WAS BIGGEST HIT OF ALL

The footlights sparkled, the orchestra put on some dazzling music, the house crowded itself to its utmost capacity, and June MacEachron, Elmer Green and L. G. Duncan, in the order named, took the prizes in the grand amateur contest at the Orpheum last night.

Perival and Shields, the graceful little girl and the bright young boy, prize winners, who go on a vaudeville circuit next week, had some new sketches, songs and dances. They had improved very much over their last try. Shields and Burton, dark-skin comedians, were allowed, the first time such a thing has been done, to crack their jokes and do their jiggling.

L. G. Duncan, the boy violinist, demonstrated that he had been practicing for the event, carrying himself well with fiddle and bow. He took third prize with ease. Elmer Duncan, the only clog dancer who has ever performed with great success at the Orpheum, and who took second prize, was one of the best features in the bill.

Miss June MacEachron, the winner of the first prize, which she justly deserves, sang as she never had before. Edith Doolittle, the boy bugler, was a little better than he had been before.

Next Friday night the second half of the first prize winners will contest in the grand amateur event.

MRS. M. W. MANAHAN IS DEAD.

Caught Bad Cold at Funeral of Her Father, Her Death Resulted.

Mrs. M. W. Manahan died at her residence, 28 East Georgia avenue, at 11:45 o'clock last night.

Mrs. Manahan was the wife of Dr. M. W. Manahan, the well-known homeopathic physician, and daughter of the late George R. Walker, a prominent attorney of Norfolk, Ohio, who died two years ago. It was while in Ohio in attendance upon her father's funeral that Mrs. Manahan contracted the cold which resulted in her death.

Dr. and Mrs. Manahan moved to Atlanta from Ohio twenty-three years ago and since that time she has been identified with a number of the city's philanthropic institutions. She was for a number of years secretary and treasurer of the Sheltering Arms Society, only resigning when ill health prevented her active participation in the work. She was a devoted member of the Methodist church, and a member of the foreign and home missionary societies of that institution, ever ready to take her share in any effort along charitable lines. She was woman of pronounced mentality, and her character of strength and rare womanly sweetness. She was a gifted artist, her nature studies ranking with those of professional merit.

She was the mother of two children, Manning Laurence and George LeRoy Manahan, both of whom died in their childhood.

Died in Rocking Chair.

Albany, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—Mrs. Mattie A. Brown died at her home in East Albany today while sitting in a rocking chair. Death was almost instantaneous and was due to paralysis, the stroke being the second she had sustained.

Odd Fellows Meet at Jackson.

Jackson, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—Pursuant to a call of Division Deputy Grand Master L. A. Collier, of Barnesville, the Odd Fellow lodges of the tenth division met with Jackson Lodge No. 152 last night. Discussions of important subjects to come up before the next grand lodge were taken up. Division Deputy Grand Master Collier, who is very proficient in the unwritten work, exemplified this in all the degrees of the subordinate lodge. The next division meeting will most likely be held with Warren Lodge No. 20 of Griffin.

Pneumonia Most Fatal During Winter Months.

Statistics of the Health Department show pneumonia to be one of the most fatal diseases, especially during the winter months. The records show numerous instances where neglect of an apparently insignificant cold has developed pneumonia without warning.

It is the better part of wisdom to check a cold at the outset. Take two ounces of glycerine, a half pint of good whiskey and a half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine, mix thoroughly and use in teaspoonful doses every four hours. This formula is said to break up a cold in twenty-four hours, and cure any cough that is curable. It has been found that five ounces of tincture of cinchona compound can be used instead of whiskey, with the same result.

The ingredients are inexpensive and can be purchased without trouble at any good drug store. To avoid substitution of some inferior pine product for the Virgin Oil of Pine, it is better to purchase each separately and mix them at home.

The genuine Virgin Oil of Pine is put up for dispensing only in 4-ounce vials, each vial securely sealed in a round wooden case with an engraved wrapper showing plainly the name—Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906, Serial No. 451, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. Be sure to get the genuine, as the oil sold in bulk and cheap imitations put out to resemble Virgin Oil of Pine in name and style of package are ineffective, being largely composed of a distillation of pine needles, or leaves, instead of from the pine tree proper.

These pine needle oils are not intended for internal use, and when taken internally usually cause nausea. Their use is mainly confined to the manufacture of soap and similar purposes.

SEVEN DAYS IN LIGHTHOUSE AND ALONE WITH A CORPSE

Toledo, Ohio, February 21.—Fleeing in terror over long stretches of treacherous ice from the Toledo harbor lighthouse, where for seven days he had been imprisoned with the dead body of Captain Delos Hayden, Joe Berner reached the city last night. He brought the news of the death to friends and relatives, telling of the nerve-racking vigil beside the dying man in the lonely lighthouse, and his still more terrifying experience while watching over the dead body waiting for a turn in the weather which would permit his escape over the ice.

Hayden was conscious to the last, and left a message for each of his relatives and friends. He died in his faithful companion's arms. Berner placed the body in one of the lower rooms of the lighthouse and began his wait for an opportunity to reach shore. Around the lighthouse the ice was firm under the snow, and when Berner started out early Wednesday afternoon he had strong hopes of reaching the shore in safety. Yet the trip was extremely perilous, he being not even equipped with a pike pole with which to sound the ice.

Many times he fell into icy holes, going into water and frequently he escaped by the merest chance. Berner cannot explain how he happened to reach Cedar Point. He had no idea as to the direction in which he was walking, and had gone 20 feet either east or west of the course he happened to take, he would have missed land altogether. He took a few hours' rest at Cedar Point and then proceeded to the city.

Entertainment by the U. D. C. Cordele, Ga., February 21.—(Special.) The entertainment given at the U. D. C. house last night by the United Daughters of the Confederacy was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

"Montana Joe" at Covington. Covington, Ga., February 21.—(Special.) Montana Joe, pushing a wheelbarrow, arrived in town Wednesday noon. He is en route to New York on a wagon of $750, put up by a Denver club that he could make it by April 1. He spent one night here, and seems confident of making the remaining 900 miles on time.

DELAY INQUEST OVER CAMPBELL

Mrs. John Campbell Under the Influence of Opiates.

AUTOPSY BY DR. J. W. HURT

Forehead of Mrs. John Campbell Was Badly Bruised by Some Blunt Instrument, and Her Nose Was Broken—Detectives Complete Investigation.

The holding of an inquest to determine the cause of the death of John B. Campbell, who shot himself to death at 1 o'clock Friday morning at the family residence, 110 West Baker street, after seriously wounding his wife by striking her on the head with the revolver or some blunt instrument, was postponed yesterday by Coroner Thompson until such time as Mrs. Campbell may be able to testify.

Mrs. Campbell was the only eyewitness of the tragedy enacted in the bed room Friday morning, and her condition, after having been struck across the forehead and having her nose broken, was such that it was necessary to administer opiates to her to relieve her suffering. It may be several days before she is able to testify before the jury.

Coroner Thompson impaneled a jury at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, but was advised that Mrs. Campbell's condition would not permit her to undergo the strain of testifying, and she had not recovered from the shock incident to the tragedy and her injuries. Two deep gashes were cut across her forehead, and her nose was broken at the base.

Death Caused by Bullet. Dr. J. W. Hurt, the county physician, performed an autopsy on the body of Mr. Campbell, and discovered that death had been caused by a 38-caliber bullet which severed the jugular vein at the point of entrance, the right side of the neck, and penetrated the brain, fracturing the skull. The bullet was found near the side of the skull.

City Detectives Lockhart and Roberts were detailed to investigate all the circumstances of the tragedy, and they stated that they had discovered no evidence tending to upset the theory that Mr. Campbell had committed suicide.

As stated in The Constitution, Mr. Campbell, who had been in ill health for a year and had been brooding over it, retired early in the night, leaving his wife sitting up in the room with him. Later, according to the statement made by Mrs. Campbell immediately after the tragedy, she fell asleep on the bed about 12:30 o'clock, and waked about half an hour later to find her husband on the floor, with a pool of blood, and blood dripping down her face from wounds inflicted upon her forehead. She screamed for her daughter, Miss Sarah Campbell, who roused the neighbors and summoned the police. Other than this, Mrs. Campbell has not been able to describe in detail what took place just prior to Mr. Campbell's killing himself, it being necessary to put her under the influence of anesthetics, from the effects of which she has not yet fully recovered.

The condition of the room when entered by the police officers indicated that a struggle had occurred between Mr. Campbell and his wife prior to his shooting himself, and that he had struck his wife on the head with the revolver when she attempted to prevent his carrying out his desperate intention. The police hold this theory, pointing out the fact that a wooden rocking chair at the foot of the bed had been broken to pieces, and that there was other evidence of a struggle.

Mr. Campbell was for a long number of years a bookkeeper for the Pottsville Liqueur Company. His declining health caused him to retire from business about a year ago. Recently he has been very despondent over his state of health, and it is thought by the members of his family that brooding over his troubles temporarily unseated his mind.

The funeral arrangements will not be announced until after the arrival of his son, Carlisle Campbell, of Louisville, Ky.

The order is the result of many complaints from parents and wives.

UNDERCHARGES REPORTED FOR ONLY THREE MONTHS

Alleged Practice of Chesapeake and Ohio of Splitting Through Sales Going on for Years.

Richmond, Va., February 21.—The testimony taken before Interstate Commerce Commissioner Lane here today was largely supplementary of evidence already given showing alleged horse office organization of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad through which records of freight claims prior to January 1, 1907, suspected of being memoranda of rebates to shippers, were destroyed by Linn B. Enslow, auditor of disbursements, who conspired with the management of the interstate commerce act forbidding such destruction of records.

It was brought out in the examination of District Freight Agent Henry M. Boykin, the Seaboard Air Line and Chesapeake and Ohio clerk, that the Chesapeake and Ohio has reported undercharges on recognized cars for August, September and October only when the alleged secret practice of splitting through sales on local shipments had been going on for years. The investigation was adjourned this afternoon. Commissioner Lane will make his full report to the commission at Washington.

LAST RITES SAID OVER LATIMER

South Carolina Senator Buried at Belton, His Home.

Greenville, S. C., February 21.—The funeral of the late Senator Asbury Churchhill Latimer, who died in Washington yesterday, was held in the Methodist church at Belton, near here, after afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. B. L. Holm, pastor of the deceased, officiated. The floral tributes were numerous, among the most conspicuous being the one sent by the immigration commission, and the one sent by the guests of the Congress Hall hotel, Washington. There were present the funeral delegations from both houses of congress and from both houses of the state legislature, besides representatives from various commercial organizations in the state. Many prominent persons from various sections of the state, including the members of the legislature, were in the cemetery at Belton.

Congressman Stricken on Train. Representative Edmund H. Hinshaw, of Nebraska, one of the congressional party accompanying the body of Senator Latimer, became ill just before the funeral train reached Spartanburg this morning. Physicians were summoned to the station, and it was found that Mr. Hinshaw was suffering from bladder trouble. After they had administered relief the train proceeded to Belton.

CANNOT SHIP TO DRY TOWNS.

So Rules Judge Richardson, of Alabama—Rounds Await Decision.

Montgomery, Ala., February 21.—Railroad officers are worked up over the charge of Judge J. C. Richardson, of an neighboring circuit, that any shipment of liquors from outside as well as in the state, are violations of the anti-shipment law, which provides against taking intoxicants from a selling territory to dry sections.

It had been thought that it could not be made to apply to interstate shipments, but this judge says it can, on the ground that every state may provide its own police protection. This will affect many cities near the state line if held to be good, those places having saloons set up to ship to the dry territory in Alabama and Georgia. Many roads have stopped movements of liquors awaiting decision.

EARLY VEGETABLES HURT.

Fruit Was Also Damaged by the Cold Weather.

New Orleans, La., February 21.—Early fruits and vegetables, mostly intended for shipment to the north, have been badly damaged by the cold of the last two days, which arrived on the gulf coast simultaneously with the blizzard in the north.

Reports today from southern Mississippi and Louisiana are that strawberries, which are in bloom, have been injured, and that lettuce, radishes and peas have suffered. Peach, pear and orange trees, which were in blossom, have been hurt, but great numbers of such trees escaped because their buds have not yet opened. Long Beach, Miss., which is on the gulf shore, reported ice half an inch thick.

FARMER KILLED IN DEEP WELL

Bucket of Mud Fell Down Well and Struck Him on Head.

Brown House, Macon, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—While working at the bottom of a well his plantation in Jones county, yesterday afternoon, Dawson Comer, a prosperous farmer of the community, met a tragic death, a mud bucket which he had been using having fallen from the cutting at the surface below where it struck him on the head and dealt a fatal blow.

The farmer had been digging in the well all the afternoon and a bucket was left too near the edge of the well. While there was no one to witness the tragedy, the bucket fell and inflicted a fearful wound on the young farmer's head. When he was missed at the supper hour, members of the family went to the well to call him and found his dead body.

He was the son of Washington Comer and was well known in Macon. The funeral occurred this afternoon at the family home and the interment was in the family burying ground.

Poisoning Charge Against Woman.

Kansas City, February 21.—Mrs. Sarah Morasch, a sister-in-law of Charles Miller, father of Ruth Miller, the 4-year-old child who died in Kansas City, Kan., February 12, from the effect of eating poisoned candy which was intended for her half-sister, Ella Van Meter, was arrested at Harrisonville, Mo., last night, charged with complicity in the girl's death. Mrs. Morasch's 17-year-old daughter, Blanche, was arrested yesterday by the police of Kansas City, Kan., on the same charge. Miss Van Meter, for whom the candy was intended, ate it, but recovered.

No More Belgian Immigrants.

Antwerp, February 21.—Emigration from this port to the United States has practically ceased because of the belief that it is now very difficult to get employment there. As a result, the Red Star line steamer Gothland, which has just been fitted out for the emigrant trade, has been tied up.

Pneumonia Most Fatal During Winter Months.

Statistics of the Health Department show pneumonia to be one of the most fatal diseases, especially during the winter months. The records show numerous instances where neglect of an apparently insignificant cold has developed pneumonia without warning.

It is the better part of wisdom to check a cold at the outset. Take two ounces of glycerine, a half pint of good whiskey and a half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine; mix thoroughly and use in teaspoonful doses every four hours. This formula is said to break up a cold in twenty-four hours, and cure any cough that is curable. It has been found that five ounces of tincture Cinchona compound can be used instead of whiskey, with the same result.

The ingredients are inexpensive and can be purchased without trouble at any good drug store. To avoid substitution of some inferior pine product for the Virgin Oil of Pine, it is better to purchase each separately and mix them at home.

The genuine Virgin Oil of Pine is put up for dispensing only in 1/4-ounce vials, each vial securely sealed in a round wooden case with an engraved wrapper showing plainly the name, Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906, Serial No. 451, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. Be sure to get the genuine, as the oil sold in bulk and cheap imitations put out to resemble Virgin Oil of Pine in name and style of package are ineffective, being largely composed of a distillation of from the pine tree proper.

These pine needle oils are not intended for internal use, and when taken internally usually cause nausea. Their use is mainly confined to the manufacture of soap and similar purposes.

SEVEN DAYS IN LIGHTHOUSE AND ALONE WITH A CORPSE

Toledo, Ohio, February 21.—Fleeing in terror over long stretches of treacherous ice from the Toledo harbor light house, where for seven days he had been imprisoned with the dead body of Captain Delos Hayden, Joe Berner reached the city last night. He brought the news of the death to friends and relatives, telling of the nerve-racking vigil beside the dying man in the lonely lighthouse, and his still more terrifying experience while watching over the dead body waiting for a turn in the weather which would permit his escape over the ice.

Hayden was conscious to the last, and left a message for each of his relatives and friends. He died in his faithful companion's arms. Berner placed the body in one of the lower rooms of the lighthouse and began his wait for an opportunity to reach shore. Around the lighthouse the ice was firm under the snow, and when Berner started out early Wednesday afternoon he had strong hopes of reaching the shore in safety. Yet the trip was extremely perilous, he being not even equipped with a pike pole with which to sound the ice.

Many times he fell into air holes, going into water and frequently he escaped by the merest chance. Berner cannot explain how he happened to reach Cedar Point. He had no idea as to the direction in which he was walking, and had he gone 20 feet either east or west of the course he happened to take, he would have missed land altogether. He took a few hours' rest at Cedar Point and then proceeded to the city.

Entertainment by the U. D. C. Cordele, Ga., February 21.—(Special.) The entertainment given at the opera house last night by the United Daughters of the Confederacy was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

DELAY INQUEST OVER CAMPBELL

Mrs. John Campbell Under the Influence of Opium.

AUTOPSY BY DR. J. W. HURT

Forehead of Mrs. John Campbell Was Badly Bruised by Some Blunt Instrument, and Her Nose Was Broken—Detectives Complete Investigation.

The holding of an inquest to determine the cause of the death of John R. Campbell, who shot himself to death at 1 o'clock Friday morning at the family residence, 110 West Baker street, after seriously wounding his wife by striking her on the head with the revolver or some blunt instrument, was postponed yesterday by Coroner Thompson until such time as Mrs. Campbell may be able to testify.

Mrs. Campbell was the only eyewitness of the tragedy enacted in the bed room Friday morning, and her condition, after having been struck across the forehead and having her nose broken, was such that it was necessary to administer opiates to her to relieve her suffering. It may be several days before she is able to testify before the jury.

Coroner Thompson impaneled a jury at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, but was advised that Mrs. Campbell's condition would not permit her to undergo the strain of testifying, and she had not recovered from the shock incident to the tragedy and her injuries. Two deep gashes were cut across her forehead, and her nose was broken at the base.

Death Caused by Bullet. Dr. J. W. Hurt, the county physician, performed an autopsy on the body of Mr. Campbell, and discovered that death had been caused by a .38-caliber bullet which severed the jugular vein at the point of entrance, the right side of the neck, and penetrated the brain, fracturing the skull. The bullet was found near the side of the skull.

Detectives Lockhart and Roberts were detailed to investigate all the circumstances of the tragedy, and they stated that they had discovered no evidence tending to upset the theory that Mr. Campbell had committed suicide.

As stated in The Constitution, Mr. Campbell, who had been in ill health for a year and had been brooding over it, retired early in the night, leaving his wife sitting up in the room with him. Mr. Campbell was for a long number of years a bookkeeper for the Potts-Thompson Lumber Company, but failing health caused him to retire from business about a year ago. Recently he has been very despondent over his state of health, and it is thought by the members of his family that brooding over his troubles temporarily unseated his mind.

The funeral arrangements will not be announced until after the arrival of his son, Cartledge Campbell, of Louisville, Ky.

As a result, the Red Star line steamer Gothland, which has just been fitted out for the emigrant trade, has been tied up.

So Rules Judge Richardson, of Alabama—Roads Await Decision. Montgomery, Ala., February 21.—Railroad officers are worked up over the charge of Judge J. C. Richardson, of an eluding circuit, that any shipment of liquor from outside as well as in the state, are violations of the anti-shipment act, which provides against taking intoxicants from a seeling territory into dry sections.

It had been thought that it could not be made to apply to interstate shipments, but this judge says it can, on the ground that every state may provide its own police protection. This will affect many cities near the state line if held to be good, those places having saloons set up to ship to the dry territory in Alabama and Georgia. Many roads have stopped movements of liquors awaiting decision.

EARLY VEGETABLES HURT. Fruit Was Also Damaged by the Co. Weather. New Orleans, La., February 21.—Early fruits and vegetables, mostly intended for shipment to the north, have been badly damaged by the cold weather of the last two days, which arrived on the gulf coast simultaneously with the blizzard in the north.

Reports today from southern Mississippi and Louisiana are that strawberries, which are in bloom, have been injured, and that lettuce, radishes and peas have suffered. Peach, pear and orange trees, which were in blossom, have been hurt, but great numbers of such trees escaped because their buds have not yet opened. Long Beach, Miss., which is on the gulf shore, reported ice half an inch thick.

Batts Superior Court in Session. Jackson, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—The first week of the spring term of Batts superior court is nearing a close. Considerable business has been transacted.

Truth and Quality

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing. Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family laxatives is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

It acts pleasantly and naturally and truly as a laxative, and its component parts are known to and approved by physicians, as it is free from all objectionable substances. To get its beneficial effects always purchase the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and for sale by all leading druggists.

MRS. MARY ANNE DUHME DIES

The Funeral Arrangements Not Yet Made—She Leaves Four Children.

Mrs. Mary Anne Duhme, an antebellum resident of Atlanta, whose husband was extensively known in the city up to the time of his death some five years ago, died yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Butler, 45 West Alexander street. Mrs. Duhme was in the sixty-fifth year of her age. She leaves four children, John W. Duhme, Charles H. Duhme, Mrs. William Butler and P. J. Duhme. Mrs. Duhme was a devout member of the Catholic church and a diligent worker among the poor of the city. Only a few months ago she was removed to the home of her daughter from St. Joseph's infirmary, where she had been taken for an operation. Her condition showed improvement until a few days ago, when there was a change for the worse, from which she never rallied. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

JOE DAVENPORT ILL; IMPROVEMENT YESTERDAY

Joseph T. Davenport, known everywhere in Atlanta and throughout the state as one of Atlanta's most active commission men, is ill at his residence, 481 Courtland street, with facial erysipelas. He has been ill at his home for several days, but his recent improvement is such to encourage the hope that he will be able to resume active business in a few days.

PLANS TO AID CAR EMPLOYEES

For the further promotion of its employees and for better protection for them, there has been organized among the employees of the local street car system the Georgia Railway Electric Employees Association, and begins its existence with 500 charter members.

W. H. Glenn, manager of railways, is president.

G. R. Sisson is secretary.

G. W. Brine is treasurer.

The dues of the association, whose membership is composed mainly of motormen, conductors, linemen and like, are 50 cents a month, or $5 a year, if paid in a lump sum.

With this fund the association is prepared to pay its members $1 a day when sick; furnish free medicine and free physicians. In case of death by accident or sickness a beneficiary is to receive $100.

A charter has been secured for this organization, and it bids fair soon to become one of the strongest and best entrenched, financially, associations in the state.

In speaking of the association a conductor, who is a member, said:

"It is going to be a great thing for us fellows down at the barn."

"Before when we were off for sick leave, it meant that much loss. Now we are sure of $1 a day, free medicine and free physicians."

"And the cost is so little. Only 50 cents a month, and look at what we get. I guess every fellow at the barn belongs, or will in less than six weeks."

MISS ADELAIDE THURSTON LOSES SAME PURSE TWICE

Purse Was Said to Contain Forty-Seven Hundred Dollars—Purse Found in Her Room.

Albany, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—Adelaide Thurston, the actress, who left her purse, said to contain $4,700, in a Pullman car at Columbus several days ago, subsequently recovering it, lost the same purse, containing the same money, here this morning.

She discovered her loss as she was boarding a Coast Line train, and the wildest excitement in her company followed. The purse was afterwards found in Miss Thurston's room at the hotel where she had stopped and after a number of other places had been vainly searched.

ENTERTAINMENT PLANNED FOR CLEVELAND GRAYS

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon at which Mayor Pro Tem, Quillian, Walter G. Cooper, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Colonel E. E. Pomeroy and a number of prominent military men were present it was arranged to tender the Cleveland Grays, who will arrive in this city Sunday afternoon, an informal reception at the New Kimball on Sunday night.

The details of this reception will be announced today following an acceptance of the Grays, who leave Cleveland this morning.

Sunday afternoon they will arrive over the Louisville and Nashville Railroad in a special train, 150 strong, en route to Havana, Cuba. This train will arrive in Atlanta at 5:30 o'clock and will remain until 10:50 that night, leaving via the Central for Florida.

The Cleveland Grays is one of the most famous of the National Guard organizations in Ohio and these trips are annual junketing affairs for the officers, men, their wives and sweethearts.

The party will return via Atlanta on March 7 but will not stop in transit.

Macon, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—The faculty and students at Mercer University gave today to the selection of the debaters for the Wake Forest contest, which is to occur in Atlanta early in the spring. Charles H. Garrett, of Macon, and Ralph E. Bailey, of Savannah, were the successful students for the two places. D. M. Parker, of Waycross, won the place of alternate. There were nine contestants, and the speaking this morning was an occasion of rare interest to the students and the faculty. Several weeks have been devoted to the preparation for the occasion. Dr. J. G. Harrison and Professors J. F. Sellers and J. S. Murray were the judges, together with the presidents of the two literary societies. Professor E. T. Holmsted presided at the meeting.

PRIMARY ELECTION HELD IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY

M. B. Calhoun Was Nominated for Senator—McArthur and Hamilton Named for the House.

Mount Vernon, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—The democratic primary for the nomination of officers was held in Montgomery county on yesterday. The number of votes polled was about 1,750. This is Montgomery's time to furnish the senator from this (the fifteenth) senatorial district, and M. B. Calhoun, of Mount Vernon, was nominated for this place without opposition.

The race for representative was quite spirited, being three-cornered; Hon. C. S. Hamilton, who has twice been representative from this county, was a candidate, the other two being Douglas S. McArthur of near Lumber City and John W. Clements of Alamo. McArthur was the youngest man in the race, and led Hamilton, the next highest man, by about two hundred majority.

CHARTER IS REFUSED SAVANNAH LOCKER CLUB

Judge Charlton Puts the Legality of the Locker Clubs Up to Supreme Court.

Savannah, Ga., February 21.—(Special.)—Judge Walter G. Charlton signed an order this morning refusing to grant a charter to the Palmer Club, Derrin and Jefferson streets, giving as his reasons for doing so his doubts as to the right of the superior court to grant a charter to an organization for the purpose of carrying on a locker club business.

The judge said he would not permit the law to be trampled about in the way contemplated, as it might result in a flood of liquor. He put the question of legality of the locker clubs up to the supreme court, and hopes for an early settlement of it. If a club with a membership fee of $1 can be legally incorporated, then one with a membership fee of 10 cents can also be.

This action is expected to be the death of Savannah locker clubs.

And now they say that John D. Rockefeller's salary is $1,000,000 a month; and he is spending the winter in Georgia, and the pay train "runs regular," but won't stop for flings.

UNNECESSARY JUVENILE ARRESTS.

The protest of the Rev. Dr. W. W. Landrum, Mr. W. S. Wigham, the Rev. Crawford Jackson, of the Juvenile Protective Association, and the Southern Association of College Women against the unnecessary arrest, detention and humiliation of juvenile criminals by the city police is one of especial merit and timeliness.

It is, of course, difficult in a city the size of Atlanta to practice discrimination in the matter of arrests. The matter is one which must be left largely to the discretion of the patrolling officers, reliance being placed upon their tact and sympathy to settle trivial disorder among young boys and girls without detriment to the larger ends of justice.

It is shown that last year 104 boys and girls under the age of ten years were arrested and brought to police barracks, under conditions opposed to the state statutes. The custom is a dangerous and an incorrect one.

The offenses for which these children were apprehended were relatively insignificant. Yet even the slight contact into which they were thrown with hardened criminals, not to mention the atmosphere of a police station, always terrifying and demoralizing to the childish mind, may have planted the germs of infinite future mischief in their immature sensibilities.

Ample ways exist by which this oversight can be adjusted. They should be invoked, forthwith.

HIS "WORKS LIVE AFTER HIM."

If more of the wealthier citizens of Georgia and of Atlanta followed the example set by the late Dr. R. D. Spalding, no forlorn and friendless waif of fortune from Dade to Chatham would go without mental, physical and moral schooling.

The Constitution relates elsewhere the preliminary steps taken to make effective the beneficent provisions of Dr. Spalding's will. One-fourth of his estate, estimated at $150,000, he set aside to charity in its many aspects. Six-tenths of this sum, approximately $90,000, he stipulated should be devoted to the founding in Atlanta of a non-sectarian refuge for female orphans.

His executors yesterday filed a petition for the incorporation of the trustees to direct the affairs of this institution. These trustees come from different parts of the state, and show the broad purpose of the institution. They are the Rev. Dr. John F. Gunn, Mr. William F. Spalding and Mr. J. Carroll Payne, of Atlanta; Mr. P. H. Rice, of Augusta, and Mr. M. A. O'Byrne, of Savannah. Selections were made by the executors with the approval of Bishop Keiley.

These gentlemen will have full charge of the institution, its maintenance and its regulation. In their personal and professional capacities they touch every phase of human want, human weakness and human activity. They are eminently qualified to administer the affairs of an institution the purpose of which is to touch the needs and the potentialities of humanity.

Of the late Dr. Spalding, the donor, it can be said that he illustrates the highest, truest type of the man of wealth. He regarded himself as merely the custodian of the fortune accumulated by the brain and the will and the health vouchsafed him by a Higher Power.

He provided liberally for his family, but he heard the compelling cry for help for the unfortunate and answered it.

His works will, indeed, live after him. He has set a noble example that must eventually make for the solution of many of the deep-lying problems that press so persistently upon thoughtful Georgians.

THE SOUTH WANTS MAILS.—NOT "PATIENCE."

Elsewhere on this page we reproduce an editorial from The Albany (N. Y.) Journal, in which our esteemed contemporary gently chides us for expecting regularity in train schedules and mail deliveries when demagoguery, demoralization and agitation have played havoc with the operation and the revenues of the southern railroads.

We do not think the farmers and business men of the south will accept this as an adequate excuse for getting their mail anywhere from one hour to twenty-four hours behind time.

Conceding, for the sake of peace, that the merry demagogues have arrogated the right to inconvenience a few million southerners. That is the argument, it will be observed, of our far-away and disinterested contemporary.

Well, then, let's permit these kindly gentlemen to go on playing their little game, while the FARMER and the BUSINESS MAN proceed to adjust themselves to inevitable conditions.

How? Easy! Lengthen out the schedules—double their running time, if necessary! Is it not infinitely better to go back to the schedules of twenty years ago, and secure a delivery of mail and a making of connections UPON WHICH WE CAN COUNT WITH CERTAINTY?

Under the present system of alleged quick schedules and of burlesque penalties—averaging in some instances about 70 cents for failure to observe contract time—mail arriving late at postoffices at which rural free delivery routes originate is delayed an entire twenty-four hours in reaching its destination, since the carrier may only wait a stipulated time if he is to traverse his long route forth and back.

This means that thousands of farmers, all over the south, each day receive their mail one day late. It means that city business men lose each day several hours in transacting important business with the east and west.

This, with a rigid penalty enforcement, is the one way to secure service for which the people are paying.

We can settle with the demagogues at some future time for the extra expense and the traveling backward.

Meanwhile, let's KNOW WHEN we're going to get our mails!

INTERURBAN TROLLEY DEVELOPMENT.

Straws of hope in the revival of industry are eagerly grasped. Anything that looks like a restoration of confidence in projects of development is doubly welcome.

Hence there will be gratification over the announcement in yesterday's Constitution that the contract has been let and work is soon to begin on the city end of the Atlanta and Carolina railroad, projected to connect West Point and Augusta via Atlanta by trolley.

Every rail or cross-tie laid these days is a peg upon which to hang hope. Even though it is but the short city end to this important interurban system which is now to be constructed, there is at least the assurance of that brief development, coupled with promise of future extension as soon as "good times" come again.

The one unfortunate thing about it is the practical impossibility of making these extensions now.

Georgia has grown to the point where interurban lines are demanded to meet the needs and convenience of travel. The interurban trolley has ceased to be an experiment in the state; it develops the country which it traverses and brings its own success.

There are in contemplation, besides the Atlanta and Carolina project, the Atlanta-Macon-Albany line, already chartered, and with water power development under way; extension of the Decatur line to Stone Mountain and Lithonia, and other interurban trolley projects promising widespread development and benefit to important and growing sections of the state.

Unfortunately these projects are now all, with the small exception noted, held in abeyance—let us hope for only a short while.

There is no question that interurban traffic is a paying proposition in Georgia, and the time is coming when the state will be a network of closely connected interurban lines.

Conservatism is directing its efforts towards the removal of those causes which have undermined confidence and made impossible the present prosecution of this important development; but cleaning Augean stables is not a task of a day.

But things are coming all right and the dawn is already here.

MR. INMAN'S PUBLIC-SPIRITED OFFER.

Mr. Hugh T. Inman has evinced his broad public spirit in the offer which promises to take the tedious pump problem out of controversy and insure the city a much-needed improvement without the delay incident to protracted litigation.

The amount involved in the purchase of the pump is $133,700. Mr. Inman has offered to give his personal notes to the construction company extending over the same interval as that obtaining in its lately questioned contract with the city. Or, if it is demonstrated to be to the city's advantage, he will pay cash for the pump upon the manufacturer's complying with ordinary business conditions.

In either event, no legal obligation will exist between the city and Mr. Inman—a technicality which might invalidate the offer. Mr. Inman merely relies upon the good faith of successive councils to meet payments which as a public-spirited citizen he assumes, his only collateral being his confidence in the good faith of the city.

He will not even have a record upon which legal redress could be sought. It will be only the moral obligation binding the municipality to protect him by consecutive appropriations.

Whether, therefore, it is ultimately decided that the council can or cannot bind succeeding councils, the verdict cannot affect the security of the pump or the patriotism of Mr. Inman's action.

He will be repaid, of course. The good faith and reputation of the city are as strong as its law-placed signature. That does not detract from the fact that few citizens would have involved the sum mentioned on the sheer good faith of the municipality.

REGRETFUL FEATURES OF THE DALLAS MEETING.

Injection into the Southern Cotton Association of matters foreign and inimical to those whose interests it was designed to serve has, it is to be regretted, materially undermined its prestige and weakened its influence.

The farmer and the cotton exchange are as far apart as the poles, nor can the distance be less between exchange and successful farmers' organization.

It was peculiarly unfortunate that the association in its annual meeting at Dallas, Tex., should have permitted itself to become the forum of defense of cotton exchange methods. Answers there were, it is true, but the very fact that it was possible for the cotton exchanges to get the floor by special invitation for the purpose of telling the farmers they were wrong in their antagonism to these institutions, one of whose chief functions is price depression, is a regrettable sign.

There was enough talk about the intimacy between the exchanges and officials of the association a year ago to have suggested caution at this time, but the damage done then is now emphasized by this last action in going to the exchanges for advice.

Another discordant note in the association's Dallas convention was the open prediction of 8-cent cotton, made in the course of debate and telegraphed all over the country.

Cotton exchange defense and bear predictions are scarcely ties that bind farmers in effective or lasting organization.

Is it any wonder, in the light of these incidents, that there should have been serious discussion of the abandonment of the association?

Imagine, for instance, a member of the Farmers' Union rising in meeting to defend the practice of future dealing, which, the next day, becomes a bludgeon to break his own head! Is the picture possible?

Equally futile is the supposition of a union member predicting 8-cent cotton with the staple selling around 12 cents.

Bear predictions and cotton exchange defense go hand in hand; they are as inseparable as the Siamese twins. But they are not the foundation stones of successful agricultural organization and cooperation.

In the Farmers' Union are found as first principles war, implacable war, upon the exchange system of gambling in products of the soil, the life of the exchanges; next, demand, continued and unremitting demand, for fair, living prices for cotton and everything else made upon the farm. There are no predictions of 8-cent cotton in Farmers' Union meetings.

Buoyant, hopeful, confident is the tone of the union, resting in faith upon the righteousness of its cause, yet working with might and main towards the victory which that righteousness insures.

There were great possibilities in the Southern Cotton Association. Established on sound lines, well officered and strong within, it might have proven a power in cooperation with the Farmers' Union, and along similar lines.

But the Farmers' Union seems to be playing a wonderfully strong lone hand, and it is demonstrating every day the potentiality of organized effort moved by the cause of common justice.

JUDGE JOHN WILKINSON FAVORS $1,000,000 BONDS

Judge John H. Wilkinson is a strong advocate of the proposed $1,000,000 bond issue for city improvements. As a strong argument in its favor he advances the opinion that the tax rate will be decreased instead of raised, as some seem to think.

"At present," said he yesterday, "we are living from hand to mouth and it is a certainty that if the system for improvements now in use is continued the tax rates will go up. Atlanta really and personally is assessed at a valuation of $85,498,560, and at the rate of 2.18 per cent there will not be sufficient funds to carry on public works which must grow apace with the city."

"The issue of bonds would help the city in more ways than one, and it would be entirely in keeping with the hard times. Labor and materials are both cheaper and a large amount of money would be saved if the improvements were done before prices advanced."

"Another good argument is that the many laborers that are now idle would be given employment. Men that once worked for $1 per day would now be paid to get employment at 75 and 90 cents and building material, etc., has fallen off from 30 to 40 per cent, thus making a great reduction all around."

"In figuring out what it would cost the city to float the bonds, there are many who have not figured far enough. They do not seem to have grasped the fact that the $40,000 interest and $33-

SUPREME COURT MAKES NEW RULE

COURT ORDERS $125,000 PAID

Application for Supersedeas for Balance of Fund Conditionally Granted.

Judge Ellis yesterday amended a part of the order made Thursday in giving the state a preference in its tax deposit in the Neal bank, changing the wording to "thirty days from this date," instead of "within thirty days." This makes quite a difference in the effect of the order.

This amendment affected only the fourth paragraph of the order, which read as follows: "That the receivers pay to the state within thirty days the balance of $67,502.90, subject to deduction." The court issued the following order: "That the application for supersedeas as the $125,000 ordered to be paid to the state within five days is denied. 'The application for supersedeas as to the balance of the fund ordered to be paid to the state is granted on the condition that the intervenors within twenty days enter into a bond of good security for $2,500, and to pay to the state interest at the rate of 7 per cent from March 20, as it is entitled to, and to also pay the costs.'"

WILL TALK BONDS FROM THE PULPIT

Dr. Broughton Will Advocate Bond Issue.

WILL TACKLE BLIND TIGERS

Pastor of Baptist Tabernacle to Give Interesting Prelude to His Sunday Evening Sermon—Thinks Million-Dollar Bond Issue Just the Thing.

At the Tabernacle tomorrow night Dr. G. Broughton, who has returned to the city from New York, will talk on the proposed issue of a million-dollar bond for public improvements. He will also talk on the fight that is being made to catch the blind tigers which have been selling whiskey in Atlanta.

Dr. Broughton states that he is heartily in favor of the issue of bonds and will take great pleasure in telling his large congregation to vote for the bonds without fail.

"I know of no more important move for the city's future welfare," said Dr. Broughton while discussing the matter, "than this move made by Harry Schleinger for an issue of bonds to the amount of a million dollars. It means that the city is to take a most progressive step forward and that we will soon have such improvements as are necessary and which should have been made long ago. We need schools, we need a first-class city hall, we need better streets, more sewers, a better waterworks plant and other public improvements and the only way we can get them is by issuing bonds. We are building a great city which future generations will enjoy and it is nothing but fair that they who will come after us and who will enjoy the fruit of our labors should help pay for what we bequeath to them. I shall tell my congregation Sunday night that they can do nothing better to aid their city than to register and vote for the million-dollar bond issue when the election takes place."

Will Tackle Blind Tigers.
Dr. Broughton, who attended the trial of the men who were arrested for running a blind tiger in the Virginia Hotel, stated that he would also have a word to say about blind tigers, the police, and how to stop the illegal sale of liquor in a state where a prohibition law is in force.

Dr. Broughton will fill his pulpit both morning and evening. His talk on the bond issue and blind tigers will be on "Spiritual Love-making." In the evening he will preach on "The Soul's Last Hope."

CAPT. BROTHERTON CRITICALLY ILL

His Life Despaired of Thursday Night.

IS ONE OF CITY'S PIONEERS

He Was in Mercantile Business for Forty Years—Fought for South in War Between the States. Twice Elected Member of Police Board.

Captain William M. Brotherton is critically ill at his residence, 235 South Forsyth street. Thursday night it was thought that the veteran citizen would not live until morning, but yesterday he rallied and in the afternoon was reported as slightly improved.

CAPTAIN W. M. BROTHERTON, Pioneer Citizen Who is Critically Ill.

Captain Brotherton had a serious spell of illness about three years ago from which he never entirely recovered. At that time his life was almost despaired of, but he recovered and was able to mingle with his friends again on the streets.

He is one of Atlanta's pioneer citizens. He was born in Polk county, near Benton, East Tennessee, on the 8th of February, 1839. He first engaged in business at Varnell Station, near Dalton, Ga., where he clerked for a merchant named John F. Centre. He next worked for C. B. Welborn, a merchant who was a member of the legislature from Whitfield county. His next position was as clerk in the depot at Dalton, which paid him $60 a month, a good salary in those days. At Tilton, not far from Dalton, he purchased a small store and soon built up a good trade.

A Soldier of the South.

When the war between the states broke out, Captain Brotherton was among the first to enlist. He went from Dalton under the flag of the Thirty-ninth Georgia as second lieutenant in Captain Ford's company. The young lieutenant was soon promoted to the rank of captain. He was stationed at West Point, Ga., when the war closed.

Directly after the surrender, Captain Brotherton came to Atlanta and started in business at the corner of Whitehall and Mitchell streets, where he remained until about three years ago, when he sold out and leased his building for a period of years.

He was twice elected a member of the police board and served as its chairman. He is a member of the Trinity Methodist church, also a trustee and a member of the board of stewards.

He has long been regarded as one of Atlanta's best and staunchest citizens, and a host of friends will regret exceedingly to learn of his serious illness and who hope for his speedy recovery.

RAILROAD Y. M. C. A. SEEKS

COMFORT OF MEMBERS

The Railroad Young Men's Christian Association has more of a purpose for Sunday than merely holding a religious service in the afternoon. To meet the need of their members the rooms are kept open all day Sundays, from 9 o'clock in the morning, bright, warm and cheerful, with plenty of good reading matter and good companionship. All railroad men when here are invited to spend their time at this home-like place, whether members of the association or not.

At 3:30 o'clock a delightful service of song and sensible talks on religious subjects is held. Tomorrow, at the hour named, Tom Harrison, a Western and Atlanta yard engineer, who was converted two years ago, and who has a striking experience, will speak, giving a chapter of his life. It will pay any man to hear his story, so marked by sincerity and so full of spiritual power. He comes by special request this second time, having led the service three weeks ago, when so great an interest was awakened that many have asked to have him come again. C. A. Schulz will sing, and the general song service will be full of life. A crowd is expected.

ROGERS SANE, SAY DOCTORS

Little Doubt That Governor Will Reaffirm Order for His Execution.

That Willie Rogers, the young Savannah white man, sentenced to death for the murder of his wife, has been pronounced sane enough to be hanged, by the commission of physicians appointed by Governor Smith to examine him, and that he will be executed in Chatham county jail on Tuesday next, there appears to be no question.

Governor Smith yesterday received a telegram from Savannah briefly announcing the finding of the two physicians, Drs. T. J. Charlton and W. F. Brunner, appointed to examine him, and stating that their report would follow at once.

Governor Smith declined to divulge the contents of this telegram, but it became known practically beyond any question that the doctors pronounced Rogers sane enough to know the difference between right and wrong, and that his mental state was not such that he could be pronounced crazy.

Governor Smith stated that he would not act finally in the case until he receives the full report of the Savannah physicians which will reach him today. From the nature of the report, however, there is little question as to what that action will be, and no one around the governor's office questions that Rogers' execution will follow it.

SOCIETY

Atlanta Woman's Club.

The Atlanta Woman's Club will hold their regular meeting at the club rooms at the Grand Monday afternoon, February 24, at 3 o'clock.

Book Showers Today.

The faculty of the State Normal school, Athens, Ga., has issued invitations to a book shower to take place at the school tonight. The invitation is as follows:

"In the hearts of certain Georgia club women blossomed the thought that the best way to celebrate the birthday of the 'Father of his Country' was by doing something for the children throughout the state. Accordingly all books contributed by club women that day have heretofore gone to rural schools; but this year the Normal school comes in for its share in the club women's annual 'book-shower.' And this because the club women have realized the school's need of a working library and have realized, furthermore, that owing to the strategic position that the normal occupies in the state's educational system, they, in giving their help, here, to the teachers of Georgia, are taking the surest way of helping the children of Georgia."

The program follows:
Prayer, Rev. Troy Beatty.
"The Federation and the School Library," Mrs. E. G. McCabe, chairman of the federation library committee.
"The Library, the Heart of the School," David C. Barrow, chancellor of the university.

"The Rural Opportunity," Mrs. Eugene Heard, chairman of traveling libraries.

"The Club Woman and the Normal School," Mrs. H. C. White, president of Athens Woman's Club.

"The Normal School Library: Its Past and Its Future," E. C. Branson, president of State Normal school.

To Miss Stephens.

Miss Edythe Stephens, of Jacksonville, Fla., is spending several weeks in the city, and yesterday afternoon her sister, Mrs. David Crockett, invited a few ladies to meet her at 5 o'clock tea.

The occasion was quite informal, but most enjoyable. Mrs. Crockett's pretty home on Jackson street was attractive with the early spring flowers. The handsome young hostess wore a white crepe de chine gown flowered in pink and trimmed with Irish lace, and Miss Stephens was becomingly gowned in white broadcloth.

Delicious refreshments were served, and the guests included eight or ten of Mrs. Crockett's young married friends.

Birthday Dinner.

Miss Cora Wynn's dinner party last night was one of the prettiest of the George Washington entertainments, and a happy celebration of Miss Wynn's birthday.

The party of eight, were seated around a table brilliant in its red decorations. The centerpiece was of liberty roses, out of which waved miniature flags. The red candles in crystal candlesticks had red shades, and the place cards and souvenirs were prettily suggestive of the 22nd.

The charming young hostess wore a silk house gown in rose color.

To Miss Crutchfield.

Miss Edna McCandless was the lovely young hostess at a dinner last night in honor of Miss Mary Brent Smith and her guest, Miss Rose Crutchfield, of Macon.

A bowl of red roses formed the basis of the table decoration, and the candles and other pretty details were in the same color. The party numbered twelve.
Miss McCandless wore a French gown of white satin chiffon trimmed with a gold applique on Venetian point lace.

Mrs. Clarke was assisted in the entertainment of her guests by Mrs. E. B. Lowe and the ladies of the Bon Air. The guest of honor was Mrs. Stephen Binyon Naff, who has recently made Atlanta her home. Mrs. Naff, before her marriage, was Miss Helen Davis, of Albany, Ga. The first prize was won by Mrs. Frank McDonald and the consolation by Miss Emma Monroah. The guest of honor was presented with a dog collar of turquoise beads. At the close of the game a delicious salad course was served.

Mrs. Thomas P. Hinnan's bridge party on Thursday was the first of the season artistically suggestive of spring. The occasion proved a most enjoyable one.

Miss Edna Shull was guest of honor, a twenty-four young women were invited to meet her. The decorations of the house, and the dining room table with its cluny lace cover was charming in yellow and green. The centerpiece was a bowl of jonquils, the silver candlesticks had green shades, and the candles were yellow.

Delicious refreshments were served, and the prizes were pretty ones. Miss Margaret Landon won the first prize, milk stockings. Mrs. Andrew Calhoun cut the consolation, a lace handkerchief, and Miss Shull was presented a lace jacket.

Embroideries

We believe we have surpassed ourselves in the Spring and Summer Embroideries for 1908.

We've always been proud of the recognition which the Shoppers of this entire section have accorded our Embroidery Department. To be sure, we could scarcely expect other than the most satisfying results from the expenditure of interest and hard work we are constantly making with this very end in view. But isn't it gratifying to know that one's efforts are successful?

There are three elements which combine to achieve this result. The woman whose shopping amounts to no more than the buying of a frill for her baby's frock will understand them as well as her neighbor who comes to choose the most elaborate trousseau, or as well as the business man who knows trade-conditions.

They are these:

First, we buy very largely in both foreign and domestic markets. This gives us distinct advantage both in point of selection and price. Buying direct, and also through foreign commissionaires, enables us to secure the best obtainable.

Then we make continuous and careful study of fashion conditions. This is important because we want to have not only the things people see pictured in current fashion books, but also to anticipate and bring out for our customers the advance things, the fashions-to-be.

Then intelligent and competent selling is a point we stress. It's a great comfort, as you women know, to have dependable assistance in the matter of matching and combining trimmings, embroideries and laces: To know "just how much it will take," to know the best way to cut to advantage, and all that sort of thing, is useful when you are buying supplies for your Spring and Summer sewing.

We emphasize all these points.

The Stock itself is splendid just now---brimful of the best things that have been put out by the great manufacturers of Europe and America.

Robes, costumes, flounces, bands, medallions, edges, insertions, beading, entredeux---everything you can want is here arranged in variety that is almost an embarrassment of riches.

This thing of "matching" sets is quite a strong point. You want a full set of undergarments, for example. You can get all the widths, all the styles, all the varieties of trimming. You simply select your pattern and the rest is easy. We've taken care of that for you.

Baby sets in the daintiest of patterns are featured in this department. Everything for the layette is here, ready to your hand.

Trousseaux for the Spring bride, for the summer-girl, for the graduate---are all here, delicately folded away in their tissue wrapping awaiting the choosers.

The wise woman is buying ahead, and even through the nippy, nasty weather of the past fortnight, piles and piles of this pretty finery have been transferred from us to the sewing-basket of the seamstress.

You are cordially urged to inspect these charming Embroideries of ours and to do the choosing of your supplies right here.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

Charles W. Phelps, aged 71 years, died yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the family residence, 430 Pulliam street. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Mary E. Phelps.

Mr. Phelps was one of Atlanta's pioneer citizens, and was respected and held in deep affection by a large circle of friends. The greater part of his life was spent in active business in Atlanta, from which he retired a number of years ago, spending his declining years at his home.

The funeral services will be held at his late residence, 430 Pulliam street, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and the interment will be in Westview cemetery.

COTTON SHOWED SLIGHT ADVANCE

Closed Quiet One to Six Points Higher.

Market Opened Steady at Advance of Three to Seven Points—Later
Showed Net Gain of Eleven to Twelve Points, Then Eased Off.

New York, February 21.—The cotton market was not active today but a fairly steady showing with the close quiet at a net advance of 1 1/2 points. Sales were estimated at 150,000 bales. The market opened steady at an advance of 3 1/2 to 5 points in response to higher prices and while there was some irregularity the general tendency of the market was upward, until during the afternoon prices showed a net gain of about 1 1/2 points in response to the active months. Later fluctuations were quiet and steady and the market closed 1 1/2 under the best under realizing for the holiday tomorrow and Sunday. Among the buyers of the day were the strength of the near months, in contrast to the recent weakness, and which has been considered significant in view of the tenders of 14,000 bales. There were rumors that a Liverpool syndicate had been formed to take up all tenders in the English market. Other factors encouraging the advance were the continued light receipts, the expectation of a heavy supply of cotton, the reports of steadyness in the southern markets and rumors that the concentration of May long interest in the local market was increasing its holdings.

Southern mill receipts were reported to remain of a liberal character, however, owing to reports that low grades are in demand in the south and are accumulating. The final estimate of the Indian crop places it at 3,000,000 bales, against 4,000,000 last year. Receipts at the ports today 34,838 bales, against 26,811 last week and 31,735 last year. For the week 145,000 bales, against 178,680 last week and 159,742 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 10 points higher, middling upland 11.50; middling Gulf 11.15; no sales.

Liverpool Cotton.
Liverpool, February 21.—Closing: Cotton, spot moderate business done, prices 1 1/2 points higher, American middling fair 1 1/2; good middling 5 1/2; middling 5 1/4; low middling 5 1/4; good ordinary 5 3/8; ordinary 4 7/8. The sales of the day were 8,000 bales, of which 500 were for speculation and export, and included 7,000 Americans. Receipts 5,000 bales, no American. Futures opened steady and closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton.
New Orleans, February 21.—Cotton, spot steady, ordinary 7 1/2; nominal, ordinary 8 1/2; middling 10 1/2; good middling 11 1/2; fair 12 1/2; low 13 1/2; nominal, good ordinary 9 1/2; fair 11 1/2; stock 220,000. Futures, opened steady, 4 to 7 points above the close yesterday as a result of favorable cable advices from Liverpool, which were to the effect that an official estimate placed on the cotton crop of British India was decidedly bullish. There was a still further advance, followed by a probability of the week-end and a slight lack of support and bear pressure brought about a recovery in values. At the close, which was quiet, the future months were unchanged to 3 points above the close yesterday.
